White House Appoints Bobby R. Burchfield to Antitrust Modernization Commission.

December 20, 2004 – President George W. Bush on Friday appointed Bobby R. Burchfield to serve as a Commissioner on the Antitrust Modernization Commission. Mr. Burchfield is a partner at McDermott, Will & Emery in Washington, D.C., where he is co-partner-in-charge of the Washington office and Chair of the Complex Litigation Practice. He previously served as General Counsel to the campaign of President George H.W. Bush in 1992. Mr. Burchfield clerked for Judge Ruggero J. Aldisert of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit after law school. He received his J.D. from the George Washington University Law School in 1979, where he was the Editor in Chief of the George Washington Law Review. He received his B.A. in Economics, with distinction, from the Wake Forest University in 1976. Mr. Burchfield replaces Deborah Platt Majoras, who resigned as a Commissioner after her appointment as Chair of the Federal Trade Commission.
